

DEATH OF MRS. OZMAR.

SHE PASSED AWAY YESTERDAY
AFTER A LONG ILLNESS.

TRUSTEES AUCTION SALE OF A
VERY ATTRACTIVE LOT FRONTING
ON THE WEST SIDE OF TENTH STREET, BETWEEN PERRY AND
MANCHESTER STREETS, MANCHESTER,
Va.

By virtue of a deed of trust from Mary E. Rount and husband, dated August 14, 1891, and recorded in the clerk's office of the Henrico County Court, in deed book 14, page 22, default having been made in the payment of the mortgage thereon, the undersigned trustee will sell at public auction, on the premises, on WEDNESDAY, the 8th day of May, 1895, at 12 o'clock P. M., that VALUABLE LOT fronting 62 feet on the west side of Tenth street, as above, beginning at the center of the road and extending to the center of the road, and having a depth of 70 feet. This is really an excellent lot, situated in the center of the city, and has a dwelling on it which, though it is out of repair, can easily be put in good order and will rent for a good price.

TERMS: Cash sufficient to pay the costs of executing this trust and to pay the balance of the mortgage thereon, to be paid in cash or by note, bearing interest at 6 per cent, and secured by a deed of trust on the premises, to be given at the time of sale. The balance upon such terms as will be given at the sale.

COMMISSIONER'S AUCTION SALE OF THE SPLENDID LITTLE
FARM, ABOUT FIVE MILES BELOW
THE CORPORATE LIMITS OF THE
CITY OF RICHMOND, THREE HUNDRED YARDS DISTANT FROM THE
INTERSECTION OF CHARLES CITY
AND RICHMOND AVENUES, THIS COUNTY
OF HENRICO, ON WHICH NOW
RESIDES JAMES LEWIS.

Robert T. Wade, Plaintiff.
James Lewis, Defendant.
In the Circuit Court of the county of Henrico, decree of October 16, 1894.

In execution of a decree in the above-mentioned suit, the undersigned, hereby appointed for the purpose, will sell by auction, to the highest bidder, at the county court-house, on

MONDAY, May 13, 1895,
at 12 o'clock noon, the property located as above, and described as follows: A certain TRACT OF LAND lying in said county, containing 13 1/2 ACRES, and adjoining the lands of J. M. Pearce,
James T. Wade, and others.

This property is situated on an eminence commanding a fine view of the surrounding country, and on the premises is located a very nice two-story frame house, a large barn and cow-shed, with much of the latest and most approved machinery. The immense water-power, capable of being greatly increased by proper utilization, the large areas of adjacent vacant lands, and the great capacity of the buildings, there being over 120,000 feet of mill room, will permit, indeed, invites the establishment of other industries, such as an electric plant or a paper-mill, or an extension of the present plant.

The lands have an almost world-wide reputation and possess great value. The never-failing and abundant supply of water which furnishes power is drawn from the river by a private canal, easily and cheaply maintained, and the isolation of the mills minimizes the danger of fire.

These mills, with so many valuable appurtenances, and situated in a city so favored in climate, in location, in transportation facilities by water and rail, and offering such vast possibilities of extension, should attract capitalists, with good money, and the attention of all who are interested in the purchase of such property.

TERMS: One-fourth cash, and the residue in three equal installments, to be paid on the 1st day of June, 1st of September, and 1st of December, 1895, interest at 6 per cent, to be paid on the unpaid balance. The purchaser to give a deed of trust on the premises, to be given at the time of sale.
